

Autumn's Dancing Leaves

Leaves are falling, one by one,
Dancing gently in the sun.
Red and yellow, orange too,
Floating down for me and you.

Swirling, twirling through the air,
Landing softly everywhere.
Crunchy leaves beneath our feet,
Autumn's colors, bright and sweet.

Pile them high and jump right in,
Laugh and play with joyful grins.
Leaves are falling, what a sight,
Bringing autumn day's delight.

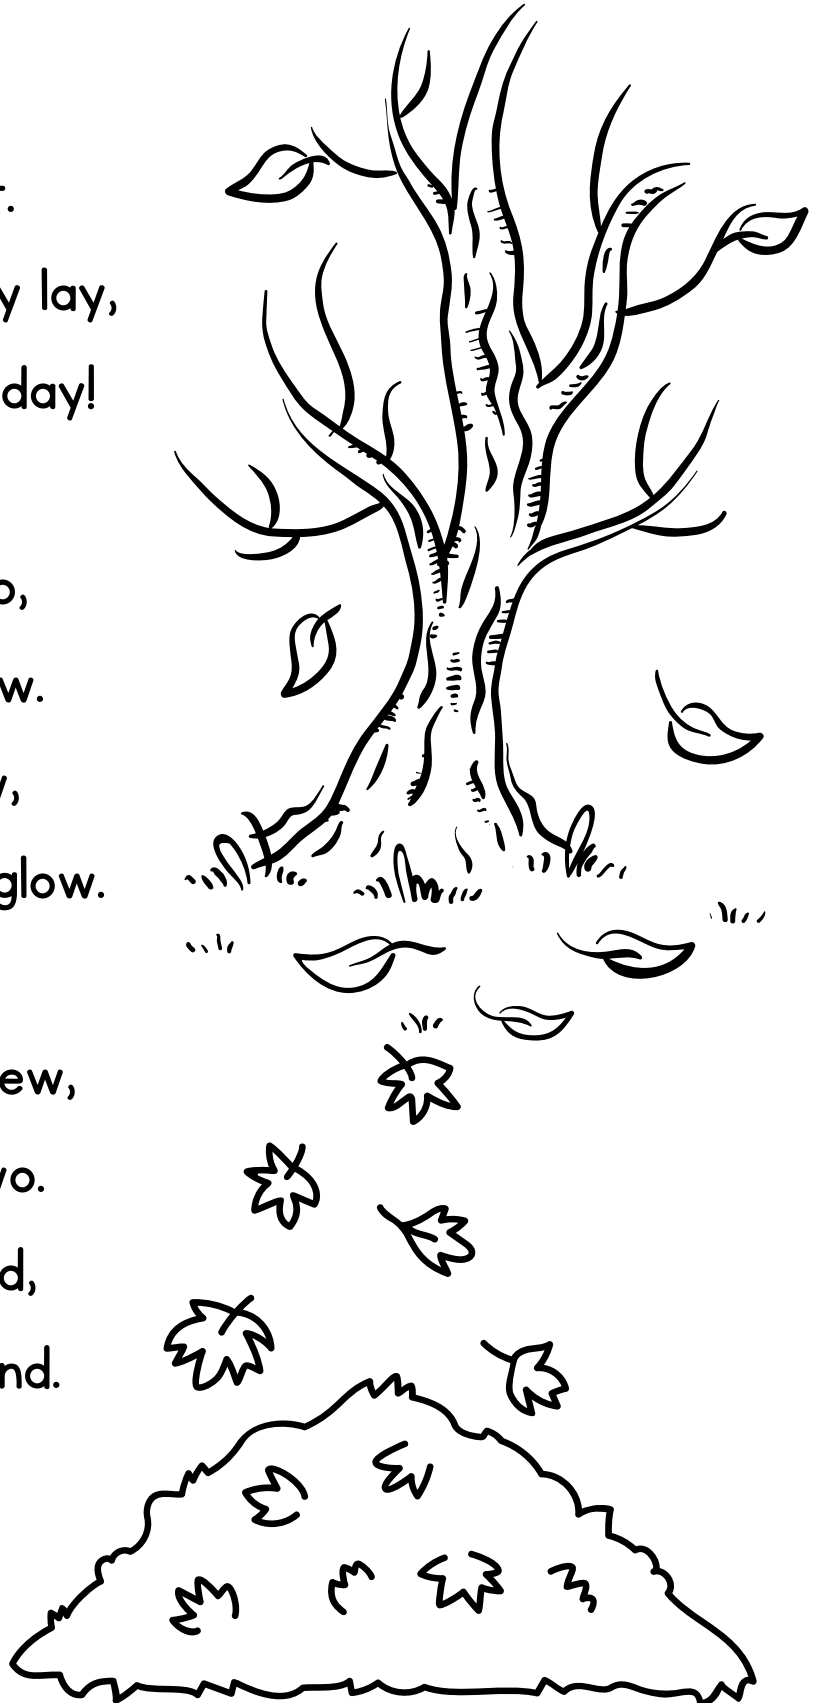

Jumping in Autumn's Leaves

In the garden, oh so neat,
Leaves are lying at our feet.
Red and gold and brown they lay,
Come and jump, let's play today!

One big leap and down we go,
Crunchy leaves put on a show.
Jumping high and landing low,
In the leaves, we laugh and glow.

Autumn fun, so bright and new,
Jumping in leaves, just us two.
Giggles rise with every bound,
In our leafy playground found.

Cozy Cocoa's Autumn Day

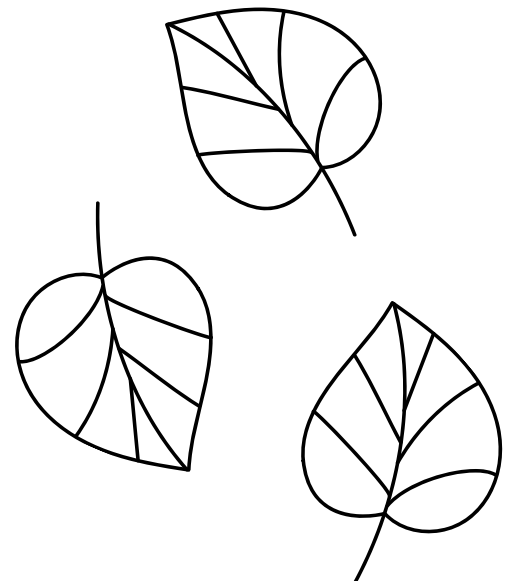

On a chilly autumn day so cool,
Sipping cocoa by the golden pool.
Steamy swirls rise to the sky,
Chocolate warmth, oh so cozy and shy.

Marshmallows float on the creamy sea,
Melting sweetly, a tasty spree.
Cinnamon sprinkles, a spicy surprise,
Tickling taste buds, what a prize!

Gather 'round, friends, near and far,
In our hands, mugs like shining stars.
Laughing together, feeling so snug,
Under autumn's blanket, with a warm mug.

The Magic of Autumn Leaves

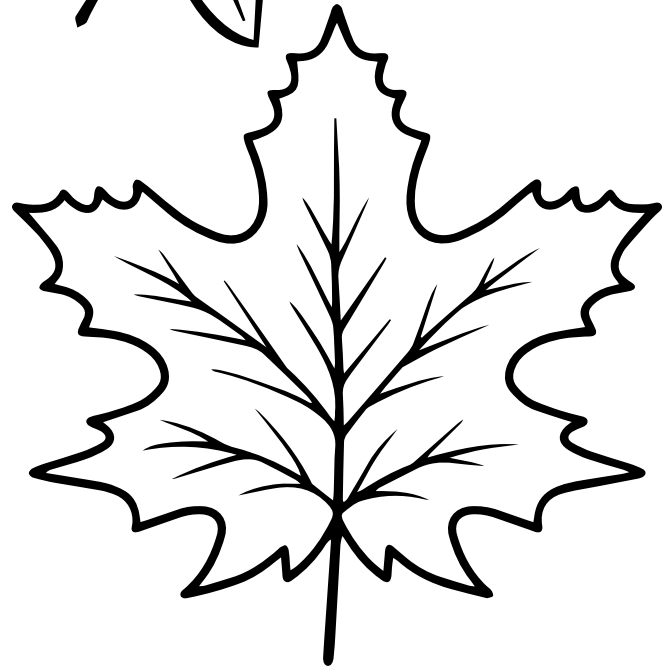

Leaves on trees in colors bright,
Turn from green to red and white.
Yellow, orange, like a flame,
Autumn's magic, what a game!

Wind whispers through the trees,
Leaves dance down with graceful ease.
Carpet of colors, soft and deep,
Nature's beauty, let's leap and leap!

In the park or garden wide,
Nature's painting, come inside.
Watch the leaves so gently sway,
Happy in the fall all day.

Pumpkin Patch Adventure

In the fall, we take a ride,
To the pumpkin patch, so wide.
Rows of pumpkins, big and small,
Orange treasures for us all.

Wagon rides and bales of hay,
Laughing, playing, all the way.
Find the perfect pumpkin round,
Happy faces all around.

In the patch, we run and seek,
Pumpkin fun, cheek to cheek.
Autumn's joy is here to stay,
In the pumpkin patch, we play.
